

JS Script driver

It is a driver created on the basis of the native AV & Custom Systems driver which works due to iRidium Script. It is used for controlling any systems which are not supported by default. It enables sending commands and receiving feedback.